Dear Julia

Many thanks for your letter of 11 March. I am so pleased to be working with SCORE and its partner organisations to support high-quality practical work as part of reformed GCSEs.

Thank you for the information you have sent to colleagues here and the offer of further support. We will be taking you up on that.

I note your comment regarding the value of sanctions linked to school performance measures. As you rightly indicate, such matters are not within our control, but we are continuing to talk with the Department for Education here.

Let's meet again soon – I will see what can be arranged.

Yours sincerely
